

Christopher Blanchfield

December 30, 1970 - June 8, 2019

Christopher Joseph Blanchfield, “Blanch”, passed away peacefully on June 8, 2019. He was raised in Oak Hill, Wilmington, Delaware, and he lived in his family home for most of his life. Although Chris was only 48 years old when he went home to heaven, he was an old soul. He had a huge heart and everyone that knew him treasured him. He loved his family and was a wonderful son, brother, cousin and uncle to his nieces and nephews. He enjoyed playing his guitar, going to concerts, and being with his friends and loved ones. He had an incredible knowledge of music and especially loved Yes and the Moody Blues. Chris was a Dallas Cowboys fan, he loved to play basketball, and was an avid Star Wars collector. He was an established Glazier and was in the Glass Industry for more than 25 years. He worked at A. R. Myers, in Wilmington, Delaware for many years and their kindness and support for Chris has been tremendous.

Throughout Chris’ journey with Kidney Cancer, which he called “The Invader”, he remained courageous and he never complained. He kept his sense of humor and everyone that was around him just wanted to help him and be near him. His optimism and positive attitude were infectious and he will certainly be missed.

Chris was predeceased by his beloved mother, Victoria “Vikki” Bennett. He is survived by his step-father, Robert Bennett; brother, Michael Blanchfield and his husband, Marc; sons, Joshua and Corey Blanchfield; sister, Lynn Shufford and her children, Victoria, Daniel, Robert, Jade, Barbara, Justin and Destiny Brinsfield.

The family proposes donating to Kidney Cancer Association @ www.kidneycancer.org instead of sending flowers. Chris was also an organ donor and he gifted his corneas to Gift of Life. For further information regarding being a donor, please visit their site @ www.giftoflife.org.

“ I have so many good memories of Chris, so it's really hard to choose just one. Chris always had a smile, a joke, and kind words for everyone, whether they knew him for years, or just met him 5 minutes before. The world lost a beautiful and kind person, and there are so many of us that grieve for Chris. Helen, we only just recently met, but the way you loved Chris, cared for him, and spent every minute at his side throughout his illness, is a true testament of the amazing person that you are, and of the love that you two shared. Your strength and courage are above anything that I've ever witnessed, and my heart aches for you. Good speed, Chris, until we meet again. ☹️

“ Undoubtedly one of the nicest, friendliest and caring human beings that I ever met. Chris was one of those individuals that you felt lucky to have crossed his path in life. I will keep his family and friends in my prayers. Rock on Chris
