CHRISTOPHER'S LIFE

Christopher David Specht-Mollock, beloved son, brother, and friend, walked into the loving arms of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, Monday, February 4, 2019. Born in Watertown, New York on February 22, 2000, Chris was raised in Delmar, Delaware and attended Delmar High School.

Chris is survived by his parents, Nerita and Steve Mollock of Delmar, Delaware; brothers Matthew and Brandon Blodgett of High Point, North Carolina; sisters Eleni Mollock of Delmar, Delaware and Julie Johnson of Fruitland, Maryland; grandparents Mildred and James Mills of Hedgesville, West Virginia, Robert and Dorothy Mollock of Delmar, Delaware; special “grandparents” Peggy and Michael Lesch of High Point, North Carolina, and a host of numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Chris will be remembered as a kind, compassionate, and loving soul who enjoyed making everyone laugh. His dream was to pursue a culinary arts degree as he had a passion for cooking. In his spare time he loved playing and talking about football, listening to and sharing his love of music, and spending time reading.

We thank God for blessing us with Chris and allowing us to share in his life—even for such a short while. Each day that goes by will be an opportunity for us all to reflect on the full life he may have lived, a life in which he may have continued to share his passions and bless all those around him.

He will be sorely missed by his family, his friends, and by all that knew and loved him.

“ To the family of Christopher: My sincerest condolences to the family and friends of this young beloved man. Please know that Jehovah God knows your pain and suffering and wants to comfort you. He is ready to comfort us in all our tribulations 2 Cor 1: 3-11. May you find peace and strength in the days ahead. Please read John 5:28, 29. It will give you a measure of hope.

“ Family of Christopher; i don't know you personally but i had to reach out to you and extend my sincere condolences in the loss of your precious son. May Almighty God be with & comfort you in the days and months ahead. (Isaiah 41:10, 13; Isaiah 25:8; Acts 24:15). Please try to get the brochure, "When Someone You Love Dies" (jw.org). It was a tremendous help for me during my time of lost. Again, my sincere condolences and prayers for your family.

“ As Chris' middle school band teacher, please know he had a special spot in my heart. After he left my program, I tried to keep up with him and spoke to him anytime I saw him. I always felt he had something special to give the world. He was always the nicest and most respectful student in my classes. He will be missed. Please accept my deepest sympathy on your loss. “ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41: 10). I hope these thoughts comfort you when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41: 10). I hope these thoughts comfort you
