

Clara E. Daggett

December 20, 1930 - February 18, 2018

Clara E. Daggett went home to be with the Lord, peacefully, on Friday, February 18, 2018. She was surrounded by her son Richard “Cookie” and his wife, Esprita Daggett. Clara was born December 20, 1930, to the late Willie Cooper and Rosa McKnight Cooper in Hemingway, South Carolina. Clara attend St. Marks High School.

As a young adult, she met and married Emerson Daggett. To this union, three sons were born: Willie, Richard “Cookie”, and Morgan Daggett. They later moved to 100 Parma Avenue, New Castle, Delaware.

Clara had her own business, a seamstress, making clothes, curtains, quilts, and many other items. She enjoyed cooking, sewing, and most of all, spending time with her family and friends. She loved to laugh and share jokes. She could be found in front of the TV watching soaps. She always had big barbeques in her yard, with everyone over. Clara always opened her heart and doors to everyone and was a foster mother to many children. You never left her house without a plate of food and she was known for her fabulous sweet potato pie and coconut cake. She loved her family and took care of her sister-in-law, Elsie M. Daggett, for many years. She especially liked spending time with her devoted friend, Cora Johnson of New Castle.

Clara was the grandmother of Carla and Malik Dennis, Mary “Princey”, Tyrone

“Tye”, Terri, and Donna Hall and great-grandmother to 12 great-grandchildren. She was also the aunt to 36 great-great nieces and nephews; 23 great nieces and nephews, 11 nieces and nephews; and connected to a host of family and friends. Also left to cherish her memories are her daughter, Carolyn Dennis; daughter-in-law, Geraldine “Geri” Daggett; son-in-law, Eddie Dennis; five sisters-in-law and five brothers-in-law. She was well loved by many and she will truly be missed.
