

Clarence William Bailey

February 13, 1938 - May 5, 2014

Clarence William Bailey, better known as “Putt Bailey”, was born on February 13, 1938 to the late David and Gladys Bailey. He departed this life and entered into eternal rest on Monday, May 5, 2014 at his residence in Exmore, Virginia.

Clarence was educated in the Accomack County school system. He was employed at numerous places, but later on retired from Perdue Farms in Accomac, Virginia .

He had a very outgoing personality, and enjoyed entertaining any one who came into his presence. There wasn't anybody from Northampton or Accomack counties who didn't know “Putt Bailey.” You had to know him in order to understand who he was. He always had to stop and get the latest news from his nephew Chester Kellam. He enjoyed going to church when he was able to go.

He leaves to cherish his memories: nine children—Regina (Chris) Bailey of Millsboro, Delaware, Patsy (Roland) Harmon of Wachapreague, Virginia, Patrice (John) Harmon, Calvin (Gloria) Bailey, Sheila, Wallace and Helen Bailey, all of Painter, Virginia, Clarence Bailey, Jr. of Keller, Virginia and Noah (Adde) Davis of Richmond, Virginia; three sisters—Gladys Hatton of Painter, Virginia, Francis (Robert) Turner of Dover, Delaware and Dorothy Padmore of Brooklyn, New York; one brother Wallace Purnell of Brooklyn, New York; 20 grandchildren; seven great grandchildren and host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Clarence was preceded in death by his parents, one brother, Richard Lee Bailey and one grandson Calvin Ames, Jr.

“Putt was loved by many and truly will be missed” .
