“ How comforting it is to know that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when \u201call those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ\u2019s] voice and come out\u201d! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that \u201che will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\u201d (Isa. 25:8, fn.) Then, instead of having to \u201cweep with those who weep,\u201d all earth\u2019s inhabitants will \u201crejoice with those who rejoice.\u201d\u200b\u2014Rom. 12:15.

“ As family, back in the day, we never called him "Clarence." He was always affectionately known to us as "Poopy." Have no idea why, so, please don't ask. (LOL). We thank God we had a chance to visit with him when we were back there during Mom's sickness before she passed

“ I like to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. It was never God's intent that death should rule over mankind. - Romans 5:12; 1Corinthians 15:26, 55; God will do away with death. But for now God has provided hope-as stated at John 5:28, 29. During this most painful time please find comfort from God's word.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
