

Clarence J. Fountain

October 25, 1920 - December 2, 2018

Clarence J. Fountain, was born October 25, 1920, in Ingleside, Maryland, to the late Stephen D. Fountain and Arvella Daniels Fountain. He departed this life on Sunday, December 2, 2018.

Clarence began his education at Union School in Goldsboro, Maryland, however, due to illness as a child, his education was limited. In his early years, he attended Mt. Zion United Methodist Church in Marydel, Maryland, along with his family.

As an adult, Clarence moved around frequently to find work, as he had a very strong work ethic and a big heart. He worked for several families throughout his journey; including the Anthony's of Chestertown, Maryland; the McSorley's of Fairlee, Maryland; the Blooms of Chestertown, Maryland; the Seners of Church Hill, Maryland; and the Hupts and Groves families.

Clarence loved his family and friends. He loved working, sitting in his yard, sipping a cold beer, listening to music, and watching his two favorite shows, Maury and The Young and the Restless. He also loved the ladies.

Clarence will be remembered for his big smile, strong stature, and great work ethic.

In addition to his parents, Clarence was preceded in death by his brother, Henry Stephen Fountain Sr., and two sisters, Pearl Harrison and Alice Gibbs.

Clarence leaves to cherish his memories, The Anderson Family, with whom he resided and became a link in their chain for more than 40 years; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him.” James 1:12

“ To the Family, I’m so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: ‘I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.’ Then he continued: ‘He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.’ I know that those words mean that those retained in God’s memory and will return in the resurrection.” Ms Woodson

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on God’s promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God “will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”
