

Clarence Hicks Jr.

September 13, 1947 - November 16, 2020

Clarence W. Hicks, Jr. was born on September 13, 1947. He is the oldest child born to the union of Clarence W. Hicks and the late Helen P. Hicks. A brother to Regan Hicks-Goldstein.

Clarence received his early education in the Dover, Delaware, public schools, graduating from William Henry High School. After graduating, he attended Delaware State College, where he earned a Bachelor's Degree in Accounting.

While at Delaware State College, Clarence met a beautiful cheerleader named, Rosalind, who became his wife. They were married 43 years. His union with Rosalind produced two daughters, Twyla and Kia.

In addition to being a loving husband and father, Clarence was a dedicated executive of over 40 years. He worked in various capacities as a corporate executive and community leader. He retired from Delaware Technical Community College.

Clarence was a member of Mt. Zion A.M.E Church in Dover, Delaware. Earlier, he served as the Treasurer for Allen A.M.E Church in White Plains, New York.

Clarence was known for his cool, calm and kind spirit. He had a love for sports and music. His two favorite groups were Earth, Wind & Fire and The Temptations.

In his later years, Clarence enjoyed spending lots of time with his granddaughter, Sydney. Life was all about Sydney!

Clarence transitioned to his heavenly home on November 16, 2020, where he would reunite with his wife, Rosalind Hicks.

Clarence is survived by his two daughters, Twyla Fletcher and Kia Hicks; son-in-law, Rayne Fletcher; granddaughter, Sydney Fletcher; son-in-law, Gregory Freeman; father, Clarence W. Hicks; sister, Regan Hicks-Goldstein; and brother-in-law, Jeffrey Goldstein; Thomas and Hilda Flowers; nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and close friends.