Obituary

On Sunday, September 22, 2019, Clarence Lee Johnson, loving husband and father, passed away at the age of eighty-four (84).

Clarence was born on February 20, 1935 in Salisbury, Maryland, the son of the late Alonzo L. Johnson and Delcie Johnson Markland.

He served two tours in Vietnam and retired after twenty plus years of service in the United States Army. On January 21, 1951, he married Elsie Rosetta Hunter and they were married for fifty-nine (59) years before her passing. Clarence was the father of seven children, four daughters and three sons. They are Diane, Carrol, Wayne, Jeffrey, Deborah, Daphine, and Antonio.

Clarence had a passion for living his life and living it his way. He loved watching westerns and driving new cars. He also had a passion for helping others. He would, on many occasions, help strangers by giving them rides and money to help them make it through the day. He treated many of them as if they were his own family. Clarence was a member of St James A.M.E Zion Church.

Clarence leaves to cherish precious memories: six children—Diane R.

Johnson of Owen Mills, Maryland, Carrol L. Gale, Hinesville, Georgia, Jeffrey E. Johnson, of Odenton, Maryland Deborah Flow and Daphine Johnson, both of Salisbury, Maryland and Antonio C. Johnson, Sr. of Odenton, Maryland; two brothers, William (Tomasena) Johnson and Grant (Cheryl) Johnson, both of Salisbury, Maryland; eight grandchildren—Gregory Washington, Jr., George Johnson, Tyrone Conway, Kenneth Wigfall, Tonya Wigfall, Michelle (Alfonzo) Green, Torelle (Andrew) Johnson, Antonio Johnson, Jr. and Matia Johnson.

In addition to his parents, Clarence was preceded in death by one son, Wayne L. Johnson, one sister, Bernice Johnson and two brothers, Charles William and Lester Johnson.

Lovingly Submitted,
