

Clarence Andrew Lewis Sr.

April 6, 1943 - August 14, 2017

Clarence Andrew Lewis Sr. known to many as Lew, was born in Gloucester, Virginia on April 6, 1943 to the late Clarence Henry Lewis and Hattie Mae Holloway. Clarence passed away on August 14, 2017 at his home in Federalsburg, Maryland.

Clarence was educated in the Virginia school system. Upon graduation, he went into the Navy where he served four years. After leaving the Navy, Clarence then went onto take over the family business driving truck. He continued to drive trucks until he retired in 2011, after his wife of 25 years passed away.

Clarence was a Master Mason of the Blue Lodge and a member of the Order of The Eastern Stars Maryland Jurisdiction for many years before becoming inactive. He sung on the Union Bethel Gospel choir of Denton, MD, for many years. He was a member of the Wilmington, DE Thunder Guards Chapter, known to his brothers as BIG LOU, until becoming inactive in 1990. Clarence enjoyed fishing and just spending time with friends and family the most.

Clarence was preceeded in death by his wife of 25 years Alberta Horton Lewis and daughter Diana Williams-Dorsey. He leaves to celebrate his life, two sons, Clarence Andrew Lewis, Jr. (Suzette) of Philadelphia, PA and Jonathan Williams (Knali) of Wilmington, DE; three daughters, Cheryl Williams of Wilmington, DE; Alvanie Horton of Atlanta, GA and Jessica Andrea Lewis (Larry) of Portsmouth, VA; two adopted daughters, Heather Mitchell of Chesapeake Beach, MD, and Tashear Holmes (Leonardo) of Crofton, MD. He leaves to carry on his legacy, 19 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; two special cousins, Stanley Brown, Sr. and Elain King (Honeypie); and a host of cousins, in-laws, two ex-wives, nieces, nephews and friends that will continue to reflect on the wonderful times they have shared with him.
