

Clarence Marshall Jr.

November 29, 1937 - February 11, 2023

The Obituary

Clarence Marshall, Jr., son of the late Bernice Justice Marshall and Clarence Marshall, Sr., was born on November 29, 1937 in Horntown, Virginia. He departed this life on February 11, 2023 at Tidal Health Hospital in Salisbury, Maryland.

He received his education in the Accomack County school system. Clarence joined Tabernacle Baptist Church in Horntown, Virginia, at an early age and was a faithful member. He served as former Chairman of the Deacons, President of the Male Chorus, Chairman of the Cemetery Committee, Church Treasurer, and Member of Pastor's Aide and Pastor's Aide Chorus.

Clarence, Jr. was married to the late Older Davis Marshall and to their union one son was born, Gregory. Clarence was known as "Jr." and "Beaver." He enjoyed telling jokes and singing. Some of his favorite hymns included "God Is Still On The Throne", "When I Call On God", "Out There On Calvary", and "Jesus Keep Me Near The Cross", just to name a few. His favorite job was shucking oysters, and he loved cutting grass.

Among others, surviving to cherish loving memories are: two great-grandchildren, Ashia and Drequan Savage; three great-great-grandchildren; one sister, Dorothy Cropper of Horntown, Virginia; one sister-in-law, Carrie Dennis of Pocomoke, Maryland; one brother-in-law, Milton Savage, Sr.; a lifelong friend, Aaron Kane and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

He was preceded in death by his mother, father, wife, grandson, four sisters, one brother, six sisters-in-law and six brothers-in-law.

Sorrowfully Submitted,

“ I was sadden to hear the passing of my long time friend. He was so kind to me and would bring me food, I know he's in heaven rejoicing and he's done with the troubles of this. To the family, please know that I am just a phone call away and I am praying for you all. Sleep on my friend, take your rest and I will see you in the morning,
