“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. Soon the time will come when death will be no more and the grave will give up all those asleep in it. Rev. 21:3,4 and Daniel 12:2 May meditating on this bring your family comfort.

“ It is so sad to lose a loved one in death. I would like to convey my sympathy to the family. Death is an enemy to mankind, but Almighty God promises that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:3&4) Please look forward to that time and may your entire family be comforted and blessed at this time.
