

Clifton Eugene Lomax Jr.

November 8, 1960 - May 15, 2018

Clifton E. Lomax, Jr., 57, departed this life on Tuesday, May 15, 2018, at Season's Hospice and Palliative Care, Baltimore, Maryland, comforted and surrounded by his family. He was born on November 8, 1960, in Washington, DC, to the late Geraldine Morton-Lomax and Clifton E. Lomax, Sr.

He was raised by his father and paternal grandmother, Mable Weaver-Lomax, in Washington, DC. When he was twelve, he was reunited with his mother and siblings in Salisbury, Maryland. At the time of his passing, he was employed by Loyola University, where he served faithfully until February 2018, when he could no longer work due to his health.

Cliff truly loved his parents, and he was especially proud of his strong resemblance of his father. He looked like him, walked and talked like him, was extremely neat, clean and meticulous just like him. He learned a lot from his father and inherited his father's charm and charisma. Just like his father, he was very stylish and loved to dress. Most importantly, he had his father's same loving and caring heart. He truly loved and protected those very close and dear to his heart. Clifton, Sr. often said, "All we need is love and affection," and Clifton, Jr. definitely shared those same sentiments.

He leaves to cherish so many wonderful memories of him one sister, Priscilla Ann London (Anthony), two brothers, Harold J. Morton (Waetina) and Lonnie

M. Morton; his fiancé, Linda Gibson; in-home mentee and self-adopted grandson, Robert Croxton, Jr. and Nicholas Santiful; his devoted and loving dog, affectionately named Chocolate, as well as nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and a host of other relatives and friends.

In addition to his parents, two sisters preceded him in death, Peggy Ann Morton and Betty Jo Morton; three brothers: Joseph N. Morton, Sidney J. Morton and Michael Morton, and his nephew, Tyrone T. Morton.

“ Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. -John 14:1-3

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with Clifton Lomax Jr. our loved one.
(Isaiah 41: 10). I hope these thoughts comfort you also.
