

Clyde Manuel Jr.

July 24, 1953 - March 28, 2015

Clyde Manuel Jr. was born to Corine Custis and the late Clyde Douglas Mapp on July 24, 1953 in Northampton County, Virginia. He departed this earthly life on Saturday, March 28, 2015. He received his education at Northampton County High School and remained in constant contact with his 1971 graduating class.

Clyde was a dedicated public servant. He retired after 20 years of duty with the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania Highway Patrol, an elite unit of the Philadelphia Police Department.

Clyde was also a faithfully, dedicated Mason. He gave of himself for over 25 years and through his hard work and service achieved the rank of Worshipful Master of the Holmesburg Lodge, 137 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1991.

Past Master Manuel was also a member of:

King Hiram Holy Royal Arts Chapter No. 2, HRAM

Progress Council No. 2, Royal and Select Masters

DeMolay Consistory No. 1, AASR

Past Potentate, of Pyramid Temple No. 1, A.E.A.O.N.M.S.

Elected Captain of the Foot Patrol

While enjoying his retirement, he was never one to sit still. He continued his love of fast cars by maintaining his 1996 Chevy Corvette. His laid back personality made him an excellent travel companion and seeker of adventure.

His latest endeavor was swinging clubs on the golf course and recent enrollment in Delaware Technical Community College. Above all, Clyde was a protector; he loved and protected his family.

Cherishing his memory are his mother, Ms. Corine Custis; his son, Clyde F. Manuel, III and daughter-in-law, Sjnecca Manuel; his grandsons, Quadyre Manuel and JaSjnn Maxwell; three sisters: Diana Giddens, Sharon West (Kevin) and Glenis Mapp; three uncles: George T. Mapp, James A. Mapp and Randolph Mapp; a special friend, Lil Mosley; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and other friends. He also leaves his extended family: the Philadelphia Police Department, the Fraternal Order of Police and the Masons of the Jurisdiction of Pennsylvania.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to mankind, but Almighty God promises that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:3&4)He also says that there is going to be a "resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous" (John 5:28&29). So you have a chance of seeing your loved one again. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the late Clyde's Manuel Jr's. Family. I was Clyde's co-worker in the elite Phila. Highway Patrol. Clyde was not only a co-worker but a true friend. It was not that long ago that I was reminiscing on how every chance we got, the guys on the road (expressway) would meet up together to have breakfast before going out to make the roads safe for the citizens of Philadelphia. It was Clyde who helped and showed me the do's and don't's of what he knew about the road, when I started working on the road. There was not one negative thing that anyone could ever say about "Manny." He appeared to look happy and not let anything bother him . I'm glad that I had a brief opportunity to meet his son, who he could never ever stop talking about along with his grand kids. I am also thankful that Manny shared in celebrating the marriage to my wife in 2010, his presence meant alot. He was and always will be one of the guys. Please stay strong and be blessed during this sadden but joyest time. Your friend Darren Williams (HP FOREVER)
