

Clyde Mason Towns Jr.

May 4, 1969 - September 23, 2017

Clyde Mason Towns, Jr., at the age of forty-eight (48), passed away suddenly in his home on Saturday, September 23, 2017. He was born in Fort Worth, Texas on May 4, 1969. He was known by many as “Mason”, by family as “Junior” and by “Dad” to his two sons.

Mason loved life and tried to help people when he could. He dreamed about one day opening a restaurant of his own and doing what he loved and was passionate about. Mason spent the greater part of his life working at Delmar Pizza, helping him to gain the knowledge needed to one day own a restaurant of his own. Mason also enjoyed reading comic books, watching movies, writing poems and anything that involved laughter.

He always said his mom was his real-life hero. He had a smile that would light up the room when he’d walk in. He was compassionate, loving, kind and a joy to be around. He will forever live in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

He is survived by his father, Clyde Towns, Sr.; two sons, Zachary Towns and Trey Towns; one brother, Kenny (Kysha) Towns; three nieces, Devony and Shae Towns and Tyneisha Gattis; two nephews, Kavon and KJ Trader, great nieces and nephews and Angel Townsend (his sons’ mother).

He was preceded in death by his mother Arlean Black Towns and several aunts, uncles and cousins.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Clyde Mason Towns Jr., please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

SS

“ I am so sorry for this family's loss. Clyde was a good, friendly and sincere person. Every time he would come into the Money Center at Walmart, he had a smile and a warm greeting. He will be missed.
RIP

---

Sheryl Stein - October 01, 2017 at 12:00 AM

JO

“ I would like to offer my personal condolences to your family. I hope that you will be able find strength in Gods promise at Revelation 21:4 that soon: he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. You are in my prayers.

---

JoyceA - September 28, 2017 at 12:00 AM

MJ

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ's] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth's inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

---

M Jones - September 28, 2017 at 12:00 AM

GR

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28,29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolences; but that you please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.

---

George & Christine Ragusa - September 28, 2017 at 12:00 AM