“ To the Cooper Family: I am very sorry to learn of the death of your loved one. Having lost in death ones who were very dear to me, I know there are no words that one can say at this time to truly ease your pain. However, may knowing that others care, bring you a measure of comfort.

Bible accounts of past resurrections guarantee: "all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Jesus'] voice and come out." (John 5:28,29) Also at Daniel 12:2 we are told: "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." As dead ones come forth from their graves, the earth will be filled with joy as never before, for those who are awoken and those who are there to greet them. Mark 5:39-42 and Rev. 21:13 May meditating on this future miracle bring you comfort.

“ I am sorry for the passing of your loved one; please accept my sincere sympathy. While you are grieving your loss, I hope you can find some comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection(Acts 24:15) when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be raised up and restored back to life, with the hope of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed promise is fulfilled and you are reunited with your loved one again, may GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow.-Matthew 5:4.
