

Coretha Youngblood

June 25, 1965 - March 28, 2014

Coretha “Reasy” Evelyn Youngblood of Bridgeville, Delaware, was called home on Friday, March 28, 2014. Coretha was born in Lakeland, Florida on Friday, June 25, 1965.

Preceded in death by her father, Robert, Coretha is survived by her son, Tremaine; mother, Eleanore; brothers, Vernon and Randy; nieces, Angela and Miranda; god-children, Dionte and Derrick; boyfriend, Maurice Batson, lifelong best friend Betty Waddler and her good friends, Teresa Palmer, Brenda Smith and Sharon “Shell” Smith, Sharita Smith. Coretha will be loved and truly missed by all who knew her, she was an amazing person who brought joy and happiness to her family and friends.

Coretha received the nickname “Reasy” from her best friend, Betty, because people had trouble pronouncing her name. Reasy loved good music, dancing and singing. Favorite songs Reasy loved to sing were “Blessed Assurance” and “What a Friend We Have In Jesus”. Reasy loved life, often taking time to joke around and have fun. Fun times aside, Reasy was a hard worker, starting off at an early age. Reasy worked picking fruit, eventually moving on to King Cole, Delegra, American Original and New Process Fibre Company, Inc., her most recent employment. Reasy was strong willed yet kind and generous, often saying exactly what was on her mind! Reasy loved her family without bounds, as she was loved tremendously in return for the person she was. She will be missed dearly and cherished forever by all who knew her.

In her absence, Betty has asked that we have read aloud a poem she wrote for her beloved best friend. A poem she wrote from her heart in order to express feelings she has for Reasy.

“ I just wanted to say that coretha was a sweet person. she certainly always had a smile and a good word for me when I saw her. she also was a hard worker, she out worked most men when we worked at American original together as we called it. the clam jam! lol my uncle allen Faison was her boss. I think of both of them and I can't help but smile. he is awaiting her now in heaven. I will continue to lift the family up in prayer. god I pray that you will hold the family in your loving arms and bless and keep them. I love them and god LOVES them too!
