

Corinda Ann Floyd

June 2, 1943 - September 4, 2017

On Monday, September 4, 2017, in the comfort of her home in Bridgeville, Delaware, Corinda Ann Floyd went home to be with the Lord.

Born in Rockingham, North Carolina on June 2, 1943, Corinda Ann Floyd or “Corinda Ann”, as she was called to family and friends, was the oldest daughter born to the late Leola Ernestine McGill and the late Charlie McDonald.

She was educated in Richmond County Public Schools and moved to Washington, DC in her young adult years. She moved to Greenwood Delaware in her 30’s where she met and married the late Walter Floyd, Sr. Corinda was fun-loving and compassionate. She was a giver and had a servant’s heart. Corinda accepted Jesus as his Lord and Savior in her adult life. Thus, she is at home with the Lord!

She became ill in her latter years and was cared for by her Daughter Gwendolyn Bloomfield. Those left to cherish her memories will not forget her laughter, her jokes and her love. God has an awesome plan for Corinda’s new life. May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with her spirit.

She is survived by her sisters, Kimberly Cooper, Barbara Easter, and Yvonne Holmes; brothers, Charles McDonald, Thomasi McDonald, Tony McDonald and Andre Easter; daughters, Carolyn Coleman of Seaford Delaware, Sandra Jones, of Silver Spring, Maryland, Gwen Bloomfield of Bridgeville, DE, and Constance Rhodes of Rockingham North Carolina; sons Kendrick Bloomfield of Rockingham North Carolina and Walter Floyd, Jr., of Oceanview, Delaware. She was blessed with a host of grandchildren that she loved and that loved her deeply.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41:10; Revelation 21:3,4) I hope these thoughts will comfort you also.
