

Corrine Kellam

April 28, 1928 - November 7, 2022

Obituary

Corrine Smith-Kellam was born on April 28, 1928 in Exmore, Virginia to the late Harry and Idella Taylor-Smith. She peacefully transitioned from Earth to Heaven on Monday, November 7, 2022 at her home surrounded by her family.

Corrine was educated in the Northampton County public schools. She loved to cook and bake. She made the most delicious cakes and mouth watering biscuits. When you visited her home, you would find her in the kitchen humming her favorite song, "We'll understand it better by and by."

In 1961, Corrine married Mitchell Kellam and their union was blessed with a lot of children, twelve to be exact. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and great-great grandmother. Corrine was a true home maker. Before her health declined, she attended Ebenezer Baptist Church in Wardtown, Virginia.

Left to cherish fond memories of her life are: nine children, James (Helen) Kellam of Painter, VA, Johnny Kellam of Exmore, VA, Albert Kellam of Exmore, VA, Clarence Kellam of Weirwood, VA, Ricky (Carrie) Kellam of Painter, VA, Edward (Ariece) Kellam of Temperanceville, VA, Irene Kellam of Dover, DE, Catherine Giddens of Nassawadox, VA and Corrine (Jerry) Collins of Nassawadox, VA; one sister, Helen Starchia of Selbyville, DE and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, other relatives and friends.

Corrine was preceded in death by: her parents, Harry and Idella Smith; husband, Mitchell Kellam; two daughters, Dorothy Lee and Ruth Kellam; one son, William Kellam; a brother, Leon Smith; five sisters, Sara Dyer, Iola Mae Holden, Josephine Boldin, Estelle Ayers and Dorothea Drummond.

I send my sincerest sympathy to the family. I have wonderful memories of visiting Aunt Corrine with my mom Josephine. Aunt Corrine was always kind, and joyful.
