

Corrine W. Williams

March 29, 1953 - July 31, 2013

Corrine Wanda Williams was born on March 29, 1953 in Dover, Delaware to parents, James C. Bordley, Jr. and to Phyllis M. Prattis.

She was the second sister out off our sisters: Brenda Evans, Stephanie Proudford and Dana LeCompte.

Corrine was faithfully married to her husband, Allen (Tony) J. Williams for 35 years and from their union had two sons, Antonio and Gianni.

Corrine graduated from Caesar Rodney High School and Goldey Beacom College.

Corrine was a wonderful woman, loving wife and great mother. She had a generous heart, caring spirit. She was also funny, opinionated, smart and strong-willed. Her greatest loves in her life was her family and friends. She was selfless in doing what ever she could to help someone in need; whether it was a gracious gift or using skills and expertise to lend a hand to those in need. Corrine loved to go fishing; it was her favorite hobby. A long time angler, she loved nothing more than to pack up the truck and go downstate to fish; especially with her family. This love of fishing was passed down almost genetically to her two sons, who she carried while she fished.

Corrine has touched many lives, more than she could have ever imagined.
She is loved dearly and will be truly missed forever, by friends and family.

We Love you Corrine!
