“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Dear Famiy & Friends, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. Crystal will be missed but not forgotten, because Jesus stated at John 5:28,29 that there will be a resurrection. This means that Crystal will be given a fresh new start with a prospect of living forever without death anymore (Psalm 37 9-10,29; Revelation 21:3,4)/ I hope these promises found bring comfort knowing that you have the opportunity to see Crystal again to share more wonderful memories together. We will be thinking about all of you during this difficult time.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one, Crystal. She will be missed. It is comforting to know that she is sleeping peacefully in death and is awaiting the time when John 6:40 will be fulfilled. This time will be made a reality by means of God's Kingdom in which we pray for in the Lord's Prayer. Once more I am sorry for your loss.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but that you read and accept what God's Word, the Bible says. We encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I have been to and heard of one too unexpected deaths this year and it's beginning to take it's toll on me. I can say that the joy of the Lord is my strength, that precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints and say they are in better place but it saddens me to know that those you've just seen recently, talked to or even emailed is no longer with us. Death can literally take the life out of us that remain but God is able and just to keep that which we commit into His hands. My prayers, sympathy and condolences to the Allen-Horne family, as well as, the People's Place/Whatcoat Shelter family during this time, as the precious, gracious, loving and kind soul of Mrs. Crystal Allen-Horne (Program Director of People's Place Vera Haven/Whatcoat Shelter) has transitioned to be with the Lord.

She was like another mother who was so caring, understanding, wanting the best and supported us all. She rehired me during the shelter's transition in 2009 and kept me employed even during my sabbaticals/leave of absences at times. She would always check in periodically to see if I still wanted to stay on payroll and wanted any hours at the shelter. I am truly going to miss walking into Vera's Haven office and not being able to walk around she here smile, and hear her say "Hey Chris. Good to see you." and give me a hug. My heart is heavy because she was a genuine, dear, sweet and kind person who took no tea for the fever, held her ground and spoke her mind if she had to in love and kindness, where you couldn't even get mad at her or hold a grudge. She would always send emails to check in on you and make sure we were alright, especially in a profession working homeless people can get overwhelming at times. She was took the safety and well-being of staff seriously and always had our backs no matter what, as long as we were not in the wrong or error...lol

My Bishop stated once during prayer, "Keep a positive outlook even when faced with life challenges." So even with a heavy heart I still tell God thank you and give Him praise for the soul and the life of Mrs. Crystal Allen-Horne. To God be the glory for the things He has done.
