

Crystal Lynn Betts

October 5, 1985 - May 11, 2017

Crystal Lynn "Sissy" Betts was born on Saturday, October 5, 1985 at Beebe Medical Center in Lewes, Delaware, to Patricia and Wells Betts.

She resided at the Dudley Spencer House in Laurel, Delaware and worked at the Delaware MENTOR in Millsboro, Delaware. She graduated from Howard T. Ennis School in Georgetown, Delaware, in 2007, at 21 years of age.

Sissy loved jumping on the trampoline, swinging, bowling, dancing, singing and just "being silly", in general. She enjoyed spaghetti, dumplings and peanut M&M's. Her favorite dining place was McDonalds restaurant. Everyone who got to know her fell in love with her.

She was preceded in death by her grandmother, Martha Rose Evans Betts, and one uncle, Jimmy "Gum Gum" Tyre.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her mother and stepfather, Patricia and Cetin Aytac; her father and stepmother, Wells and Kathy Betts and two sisters, Danielle Leonard and Brittany McKirby. Sissy also leaves to mourn her loss, her maternal grandparents, Audrey and Tommy Leggs; and her paternal grandparents, Irvin and Nancy Betts, along with two nieces, Amelia Kondash, Chloe Kondash, one nephew, Chase Leonard, several aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one (Proverbs 17:17). At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor please also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16; 6:40; James 2:17). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5,6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."
