“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. The bible gives us hope that we have a chance to be reunited with our loved ones again during the " resurrection of the dead". (Acts 24:15) Please look forward to that time. May your family take comfort in the bible during your time of grief.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. I am truly sorry to learn of your great loss. There are no words that can ease your pain. The Holy Scriptures tell us God, "is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." So, "throw your anxiety on him, because he care for you." (Psalms 34:18) (1 Peter 5:7) May this bring you a measure of solace.

“ I am sorry for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is such a difficult thing to experience. Please be comforted by the promises in the Bible. At John 5:28, 29 Jesus tells us that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. What a loving provision put in place by the God of all comfort so we can have the assured hope of seeing our dead loved ones live again one day. Meanwhile as I pray for that day to come I ask God to bless your family and give each of you the strength to endure this most trying time.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please take comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out (John 5:28,29). Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace (2 Cor. 1:3,4) while many fond memories of Curtis warm your hearts.

“ Our condolences to the Coleman family during this inevitable hour of sadness. Curtis touched so many students and adults with his humor, advice and cooking. We will always remember the "good days" in the Capital school district as a counselor to an associate principal at DHS. May God be with us all.

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope you will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection (Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one. -Revelation 21:3,4; John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. May GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time. -Matthew 5:4.
