

Curtis Lee Mann

June 27, 1951 - July 9, 2020

Curtis Lee Mann, was born on June 27, 1951, in Engelhard, North Carolina. He peacefully departed this life on July 9, 2020.

Curtis attended William C. Jason Comprehensive High School, in Georgetown, Delaware.

Curtis did a lot of different jobs including odd jobs. He loved his family and would talk to them on the phone for hours. Among those who were privileged to have this honor were siblings, aunts, nieces, nephews and cousins. Really, anyone that would take his call, which could come at any time day or night. His favorite saying was "Thank God for your blessings."

Curtis was preceded in death by his parents, Robert Murray and Cora Mann; two brothers, George McGregory Mann and Clyde Mann Young; and a sister, Alberta Juanita Mann.

Curtis leaves to mourn his loss, two daughters, Shalaya of Houston, Texas and Danita Epps from Maryland; one son, Christopher Wilson of Boston, Massachusetts; adopted father, George Mann, Sr. of Bridgeville, Delaware; three brothers, George McKinley Mann of Lubbock, Texas, Hubbard Murray of Engelhard, North Carolina and Michael Mann of Wilmington, Delaware; five sisters, Linda M. Mann of Denver, Colorado, Christine Mann Stanley (Edgar) of Milford, Delaware, Josephine Elizabeth Mann of Maryland, Lisa Watson (Frank) of Harrington, Delaware and Nadine of St. Louis, Missouri; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, grandchildren and friends.