“ Dear family, I express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one and I know it's so difficult to bear. But know that your heavenly Father understands your pain and He cares. He extends a hope to each and everyone and that hope is that you will see your loved one again. John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 25:8a

“ I wanted to express my heartfelt condolences to all of Curtiyah\u2019s family. Death is the hardest thing we have to deal with in life. I know my words can\u2019t change anything and can do little to ease the pain you are feeling, so I pray that the God of comfort calm your hearts and help you heal. (2 Thessalonians 2:16,17) Lean on Him in the days to follow. One way that God comforts us today is by moving people who care about us to give us words of encouragement that we need to hear. “*"STRENGTH THROUGH PRAYER" The day had brought me heartache; Turning skies to darkest gray. With heavy heart I drew aside And humbly knelt to pray. I told God that my burden Was more than I could bear- Then I heard Him gently say, " I'll strengthen you through prayer. " With anxious heart I still prayed on, " Lord, take this cup from me. " Again I heard His voice so kind, " My Child, draw near to me. " There Sweetly flowed an inner peace That overcame despair; In His kind and loving way God strengthened me through prayer. ( Poem written by Kay Hoffman)(PSALM 46 : 1 ) God is our refuge and strength. A present help in the time of trouble. We Pray That God Will Keep His Arms Around You, And Give You PEACE! His Love Never Fails. Blessings To Each Of You! Bethel AME Church Family \u2665Centreville, Maryland Rev. Albert Jones, Jr. Rev. Dorothy Sisco Rev. Jules Watkins Rev.
