“ To the Family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Then he continued: He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living. I know that those words mean that those retained in God's memory and will return in the resurrection. Ms Woodson

“ Hello, I want to say I'm very sorry for the loss of your loved one. But I want to bring you hope and comfort by what the bible says will happen for everyone who passed away in death. Revelation 21:4 says how God "will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning or outcry or pain be anymore, the former things have passed away." So one day, Jehovah God will do away with sickness, pain, old age, and death forever. Acts 24:15 also mentions that "there will be a resurrection of the righteous and unrighteous". This means all who have died, like all my relatives and your relatives, will get a chance to live again, here on earth (Psalms 37:29). I do hope that I brought you some comfort. Jehovah's witnesses in your local area can bring you more comfort from the bible, to help you cope with whatever tragedies you may be faced with. You can visit www.jw.org if you want more comfort, or have someone visit you as well.

“ My wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. During this difficult time it is our hope that we can in some small way comfort you as we've been comforted by what the Bible tells us about all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). The Bible reveals to us that Jesus Christ has the power and authority to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15), just as he did when he was a man on earth (John 11:43,44). This wonderful promise is a sure hope and reality from Almighty God. The Bible tells us that it is "impossible for God to lie" (Hebrews 6:18; Titus 1:2). Until that glorious day, may you be comforted and encouraged by God's promises, as you cope with life's anxieties that all of us have to face (1 Peter 5:6,7; Psalm 55:22). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
