

Cynthia V. Duker

May 17, 1949 - June 10, 2017

Cynthia V. Duker of both Elizabeth City, North Carolina and Dover, Delaware, gained her eternal wings on Saturday, June 10, 2017 in Milford Delaware.

Known as “Cyndi” or “Mint” to close friends and family, Cynthia was a Correctional Counselor with the State of Delaware and Pasquotank Correctional Institute until she retired. She was known personally and professionally for having a good ear to listen to people’s problems, an uplifting disposition, and a willingness to help anyone who needed it.

Cynthia’s most fulfilling job was that of being a devoted mother, sister, and grandmother. She leaves behind two children, Michael Duker and Terri Carney; four grandchildren, Maia Rinehart, Malcolm Carney, Marcus Carney and Mizan Walker; as well as two loving brothers, Gary Clark and James Clark Jr.; as well as a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. Cynthia also considered herself blessed to have Herma Scott, Sandra Bowe, Iris King and Dot Wilson as kindred spirits and best friends in life, who were always there when needed. Cynthia will be loved and missed by all mentioned, until such time as we see one another again.

A “Celebration of Life” service will take place Saturday June 17, 2017 at Mt. Enon Baptist Church, 518 Church Ave. in Milford De. Family and friends may come to call beginning at 10:00 am and services will begin at 11:00.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. The bible gives us hope of being reunited with those we have loss in death. At John 5:28&29, it tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Also, Revelation 21:4 tells us that Almighty God is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief and may the God of all comfort grant your entire family peace.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one (Proverbs 17:17). At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor we pray you also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16; 6:40; James 2:17). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5, 6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Good Bye My Friend
So much alike, we always seem to be-
I guess it's because we are from the same family tree.
We have laughed together and sometimes even cried-
But on God's promise, we have always relied.
You have been faithful to God to to life-
Ignoring the struggles and moments of strife.
We often talked about life not being fair-
But we would laugh and say it must be something in the air.
I am going to miss you my confidant, my friend-
But we both know its just the beginning and not the end.
Rest Cynthia-enjoy a peaceful flight-
There is joy and healing just beyond the glowing light.
