“ From the moment I meant Cindy until the last time we spoke, she was beautiful example of Christ. Her soft voice, her joy of life even in the midst of cancer. I always wanted to encourage her but it seemed she always encouraged me with her strength even in the storm. Her sweetness even with the hand she had been dealt. She loved the Lord and knew she would be with Him. I only hope I can be as graceful. I will miss our talks. Thankful to have known her and called her a friend. Looking forward to seeing you in Heaven Cindy.

“ I first met Cindy when she walked into our Bible study and I offered her a seat next to me. She said she was late because of Dr appt concerning some cancer test. I told her was sorry but she responded with we all have an expiration date. That how Cindy lived her life knowing that whenever the time she was ready cause she knew where she was going. Her love and joy of the Lord touched us all. We will truly miss our beautiful and precious Cindy!!!
