“ To the Lane family, you have my sincerest condolences. I first met Cindy when we all lived in base housing. The same sentiments i keep hearing from everyone is what i feel. Cindy had a passion for life, and when I would walk out of my front door, the first thing i would see was her infectious smile. You all are in my prayers, but we know where she is and we will see her again. God Bless!

“ To the Lane Family:
Delaware State University and the Department of Soical Work are saddened by Cindy's passing. Her desire to help others was obvious in the way she expressed concern about people in her classes and her willingness to assist other students in group projects.As I am sure you already know, we are fortunated that she passed our way.

“ To The Lane family, I was a civilian Family physician who had the honor of working with Cindy for a few years at the Air Force Base. Cindy lit up the floor. Her personality was larger than life, and she loved life! She made me smile and laugh when I felt down and out. I know how hard it is to lose someone, especially so young, but I beleive God needed her more than we did. She is in Heaven with the Lord, making others smile with that wonderful personality. I hope you find comfort in these words. She will be missed, but we will see her again, in all of her glory.

“ Dear Talley,

We are truly saddened by Cindy's passing. Cindy was an amazing person. She had a smile and a laugh that would light up a room. It was always a delight to see her. Her have fun attitude would rub off on everyone she knew. She would always make my day by something she would say or do.

Her passing will not only leave a void in our lives, but in the hearts of everyone who knew her. Cindy's memory will always remain deep within my heart.

*If there is anything that I can do to help you in anyway, please do not hesitate to call me at anytime. You can call me even if you just want to talk. I am always here for you brother.
My sincere thoughts and prayers are with you.*

*With deepest sympathy,
Tony & Candice Brooks*

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to Talley and the entire Lane family. Please accept our heartfelt condolences in your time of need. Perhaps the stars are not what we see in the sky, but rather, openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are content and at peace. God be with you.
