“ I am truly sorry to learn of the loss of one so loved. There are many words of comfort I wish to extend. However, it has often been found that the best source of comfort comes from Almighty God who knows our every need and care. "He is healing the brokenhearted ones. And is binding up their painful spots." (Psalms 147:3) Death was never meant to be. (Genesis 2:17)"He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8 May the hope of bring reunited with your deceased loved one bring you a measure of comfort.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. As you prepare to lay them to rest; to sleep in death for just a little while (John 11:11) I hope your family will find solace in the resurrection promise of Jesus; to awaken those who are now sleeping in death (John 5:28,29) to restore them back to life; this time with the hope to live eternally on the renewed Paradise earth, so that God's will, will be done on the earth, as it is in Heaven..-Matthew 6:9,10; Luke 23:43. Until that wonderful blessed promise is fulfilled, and you are reunited with your loved one again; may GOD(Psalms 83:18) soothe your grieving hearts now and grant you peace and comfort, during this most sadden time..-Matthew 5:4.

“ To the family of Ms Cynthia Nelson. I wish to extend my heartfelt sympathy on the loss of your loved one. The almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. This is a wonderful hope for our loved ones who are asleep in death at John 5:28-29. I hope you can find comfort from God's words in the Bible for the coming weeks and years.
