

Daisey Mae Sturgis

January 20, 1928 - August 17, 2020

Daisey Mae Sturgis, departed this life on Monday, August 17, 2020, at Beebe Hospital in Lewes, Delaware. Daisey was born Friday, January 20, 1928, in Wachapreague, Virginia, to the late Webster Stratton and Lillian Chandler Reed. She received her formal education in the Boston Public School System in Boston, Virginia. Daisey later moved to Millsboro, Delaware, in 1950. In 1963, she married the late Thomas Harold Sturgis. She was a homemaker and loved talking about and teaching the family history. She enjoyed soap operas and puzzle books. Daisey had a great love for her family, especially her grandchildren. She helped many families who were in need and she loved talking to people and was very well known by many.

Daisey gave her life to the Lord in 1992, and became a member of the Missionary Baptist Church in Georgetown, Delaware, under the leadership of the late Pastor Judson Garrison, for 12 years. She later became a member of Victory and Praise Church of Millsboro, Delaware, under the leadership of Pastor Ronald Hall. In December 2015, Daisey became a resident at Renaissance Cadia Healthcare in Long Neck, Delaware, where she continued her walk with the Lord.

Daisey was preceded in death by her husband, Thomas H. Sturgis; two daughters, Theresa Jarmon and Bernette Sturgis; one granddaughter, Leticia Sturgis; three brothers, Booker Reed, James Reed and Percy Reid; and three sisters, Virginia Horsey, Anna Custis and Frances Stratton.

Daisey leaves to cherish her fond memories, one son, Apostle Thomas Sturgis (Sylvia) of Millsboro, DE; five daughters, Juanita Sturgis of Milford, DE, Elder Yvonne Cannon (Pastor Brian), Brenda Sturgis (companion, David Fogg), Darlene Jolley (Thomas) and Regina Mackey (Douglas), all of Millsboro, DE; a special grandson that she helped to raise, Deonte Sturgis (Shakira) of Rehoboth, DE; one sister-in-law, Anna Belle Reid of Selbyville, DE; 12 grandchildren; 38 great-grandchildren; three great-great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends
