

Daisy C. Monroe

September 14, 1922 - January 7, 2016

Daisy C. Monroe, a longtime resident of both Kent and Queen Anne's County transitioned from this life to the next on January 7, 2016 at the age of 93. She was born September 14, 1922 in Worton Point, Kent County, Maryland to the late Hattie Jane Starling and John Cross.

Daisy was reared and educated in her early years in Kent County. She was married to Howard Leroy Monroe on October 25, 1951, and they became as one. In that union, Daisy and Howard reared seven children. Daisy was glad to share her love for her husband; she was a proud wife, mother, and grandmother.

Daisy was a woman of many gifts and overflowed with love and enjoyment for her family, friends, church, and community. She was an avid gardener, supplying fruit, vegetables and preserves to many. Daisy was well known for her home cooked meals, rolls, pies, old fashion cookies and doughnuts. She was also a long time member of Bethel AME Church and former choir member. Daisy required her children to participate in worship when young and prior to illness, she often fellowshipped with them as adults at their place of worship.

Daisy was one who had great motivation, love for learning and courage. Once she learned to drive and received her driver's license, there was not much that could get in her way. She visited her children and family frequently, both with her beloved husband Howard and alone--often after work. Daisy was a hard worker; over the years she served at Campbell Soup, Tomato and Spinach

Factories, Vita Foods, and in domestic service.

In addition to her parents, Daisy was preceded in death by her husband, Howard, two sons, Julian Martin, and James Monroe. Daisy was also preceded in death by two daughters-in-law, Esther Martin (Nelson) and Josephine (Robert) Monroe and siblings: Mary, Bessie, Lillian, Anna, Nelson, John, Esther, and Oliver.

Daisy leaves to celebrate her life and to mourn, two sons, Nelson Martin, [Chestertown, MD] and Robert Monroe [Pondtown, MD]; three daughters, Shirley Black, who also served as a faithful and devoted caregiver [Pondtown, MD]; Elizabeth Schofield (Donald) [Dover, DE], Dorothy Monroe [Pondtown, MD], two grandsons who also assisted with their grandmother's care, Marcellus "Louie" Black and Ezekiel Monroe. She also leaves nine grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren to celebrate her legacy along with and one sister and brother-in-law Grace and John Wilson [Colemans, MD], and two sisters-in-law, Katherine Gilliam [Seat Pleasant, MD] and Alberta Cross, [Philadelphia, PA] and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Daisy C. Monroe, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

DS

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy during the loss of your loved one. In Almighty GOD's word the bible we find hope of a resurrection of the dead. ( Acts 24:15 ) Also, the bible tells us that in the near future Almighty GOD is going to remove death, sickness and pain. ( Revelation 21:3&4 ) So, please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief, and may your entire family be comforted and blessed at this time.

---

Doretha Sampson - January 18, 2016 at 12:00 AM

RV

“ We want to send our deepest sympathy to all the Monroe family. Shirley we are sorry we can't be there as we are now in New Zealand. We will never forget you and your wonderful family.

May God give you peace knowing that Mom is now home.

*Sincerely,
Richard & Linda VanSant*

---

Richard and Linda VanSant - January 16, 2016 at 12:00 AM

BF

“ Our sympathy to the family.....and to Shirley.....please know, you have our admiration for the constant love and care you showered over your mom.

---

Buddy and Debbie Fuchs - January 15, 2016 at 12:00 AM