Obituary

DaJuad Rae'heim Townsend known as Jy was born on August 23, 2000 in Salisbury, MD to LaTisha Townsend and William Bowyer Jr.

Juad or Jy often called by family and everyone who knew him. From the very beginning Jy was a bright light in the lives of everyone who knew him. Jy was a born leader, true survivor always willing to go above and beyond for his family and friends.

Dajuad received his education from Wicomico County Public Schools. Jy last place of employment was at Genesis Healthcare but worked various jobs over the years.

DaJuad had a heart of gold. Dajuad was a kind hearted respectful young man. Brought joy and laughter to everyone around him. Jy was the life of the party always full of joy and laughter. He was the family protector. Known for his beautiful smile, he had a smile that would light up anyone's day.

Jy had a special way of making every family gathering brighter He enjoyed joking with his siblings and making memories with these who mattered the most. Family meant everything to Jy, one of his greatest joy was simply being surrounded by those he held close. His love was genuine, his hugs were comforting and a unforgettable smile. He leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, and an unbreakable bond with his siblings.

DaJuad is survived by his parents Latisha Townsend and William Bowyer. His brother Dajour Diggs, ZaRai Townsend. Sisters Sevynn Townsend, ShaNyria Duncan, Ar'Sharri and Za'Kyiah Bowyer. His grandparents Sharri White and Gregory Fuller. His bestfriend, Rashaan Evans. His godmother Nikia Cooper and god daughter Se' Kani Jua'Dae Westcott.. And a host of aunts/uncles and cousins who will forever cherish the memories they shared with him. He also leaves behind countless friends and loved ones who are grieving the loss of such a beautiful soul.

DaJuad was preceded in death by his grandfather Maurice Townsend, grandmother Famina Bowyer; his great-grandfather George White Sr, great-grandmother Christine White; Great-Aunt Gertude Parker and cousins Keonte Gaskins and Kiaira Jones.

Losing Jy has left an never ending void in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. Jy always would tell his family I love you before leaving. He never left the house or hung up the phone without saying, I love you. It was more than a habit, it was who he was. Jy's laughter, his energy, his beautiful smile, and his presence will be missed every single day. He touched many lives in his short 24 years and leaves behind a legacy of kindness, warmth, and love that will never be forgotten. Please continue to keep his family in your thoughts and prayers during this incredibly difficult time.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
