“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, \u201cif an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.\u201d Ms Woodson

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I worked with Dj at Lowes for a while. Tried to stay in touch after he left Lowes. He was a great guy. Always smiling and was there if you needed him. He will be sadly missed by many. He touched alot of people. I know he loved his family, his girls were his life. Prayers are with you in this time of grief

“ Stephanie, Words are hard to find sometimes. Our families have known each other for many years, lived, educated and reared children in the same community. It is said, "we are on loan to one another". Many came to know and love DJ, during this time. While here one strives to make it worth it and significant enough to make a difference, as did he. A loan you shared, Stephanie, for all to remember, thank you. We send our love, outmost respect and caring now and always. Our arms are outstretched, our prayers lifted to keep you and your family uplifted and surrounded with His peace. Da'Juan is fondly remembered. Dorphine Abrams-Rojas & Family

“ Dear family, I express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one and I know it's so hard to bear. But know that your heavenly Father understands your pain and He cares. He extends a hope to each and everyone and that hope is that you will see your loved one again. John 5:28, 29; Isaiah 25:8a

“ My dear wife and I would like to take this opportunity to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. Because times like this are so difficult to cope with, our hope is to comfort you as we've been comforted when we've lost a loved one. The Bible reveals to us good news from Almighty God about all those who have died. He promises that one day his beloved son, Jesus Christ is going to bring the dead back to life - to enjoy life the way God purposed it to be in the beginning (Genesis 1:27, 28). He promises to remove all things that have made life difficult for us, including that enemy death (Revelation 21:3, 4; Psalm 37:9-11). What a glorious day that will surely be! We can trust that this promise from God will be fulfilled, because we know it is impossible for God to lie (Hebrews 6:18). May you be strengthened and comforted with such a hope as we deal with the challenges and difficulties of life right now (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
