“ To all family and friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37:11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. It's at times like this that the support of family and friends means so much (Proverbs 17:17). May the God of All Comfort be with you as you comfort one another (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Jesus promised that one day he would bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Perhaps difficult to see the reality of that promise, we can be assured and guaranteed that this will happen. Why? Because God's Word, the Bible tells us so (Isaiah 55:10, 11)! And we know that God cannot ever lie (Titus 1:2). So, please be comforted in the hope ahead as we do our part to do God's will (1 John 2:17). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
