“ I am deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Dalphonso, “Fonzy” Beckett. “Fonzy” and his wife, Geraldine have been longtime family friends, and his presence will be truly missed.
Geraldine, please know that you and your beautiful family are in my thought's and prayers during this incredibly difficult time.
I am praying that God surrounds you and your beautiful family with His comfort and peace. May He give you the strength to endure this season and the assurance that you are not walking through it alone.

Phonsie as I new him growing up was the most caring individual that I looked up to. I would always walk down the road to hear him play the guitar. He taught me the first bar to Hollywood swinging. Now my brother you are playing in a greater place than Hollywood. Prayers to the family and God bless everyone.
