

Damarius L. Young

July 3, 1983 - July 22, 2016

Damarius Young 33, son of Kennard Young Sr. and Iona Wright-Vincent, answered the call to his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on July 22, 2016.

Damarius attended Chesapeake City Elementary School from pre-k to 6 grade. He then attended Bohemia Manor High School from grade 7 through 12 grade, where he made friendships that lasted a lifetime.

Damarius loved all types of sports, including baseball, basketball, and football. He had a heart of gold, which included a special place in his heart for the elderly as well as children. Damarius would give his very last. He left a lasting impression with everyone he met. No one was considered small in his eyes. His love captured the hearts of many. Most of all Damarius loved to do what he could for anyone. He also made sure that he took care of his mother and brother to the best of his ability.

He was preceded in death by grandparents George Wright, Jr. and Hazel Young.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory, his mother Iona Wright-Vincent, father Kennard Young, Sr., one brother, Kennard Young, Jr., his paternal grandfather James Young, and maternal grandmother Alverta Wright. He also leaves a special and loving friend, Stacey Byerly and many other special friends, aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of loving friends.

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.
