

Daniel Whitney Jr.

June 18, 1940 - March 11, 2016

Daniel Whitney, Jr., was born on June 18, 1940 to the late Clara King Whitney and James Braxton Clark, in Delmar, DE. He was reared from infancy by his late step-father, Daniel Whitney, Sr., and was the love of this man's life. Daniel passed away at 1:17 A.M. on Friday March 11, 2016 at Coastal Hospice at the Lake in Salisbury, MD. He attended Paul Lawrence Dunbar School in Laurel, DE.

Daniel was an employee of Farmers and Planters with his three brothers, and he was later an employee of Milford Twilley for many years. Daniel really loved his family and was a devoted father, grandfather and brother. He was outgoing, high spirited, and helpful. He was a person who "said what he meant, and meant what he said." He attended Harvest Temple Revival Center under the pastorship of his late brother Apostle Braxton Leegar Clark. He loved and enjoyed quiet times with his late brother-in-law, Mr. William T. Belle for prayer, Bible teaching and instructions of life.

He leaves precious memories with: his wife, Wanda; daughters Fondella, Carrie, Lenore and Danielle Whitney; step-daughter Se Keitha Matthews; fourteen grandchildren; one great-grandchild; sisters, Martha Norma Bell, Rosalie Morre, Janiece Hoffler, Brenda Clark and Barbara Morris; brothers, Pastor DeVaughn Clark, Joseip Clark and Thomas S. Boston and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Daniel was preceded in death by one step-daughter, Latonya Sessoms, a daughter Clara Whitney; son Daniel Lorenzo Whitney; grandson Jerry Crawford and brothers Apostle Braxton L. Clark, Clifton Boston, Sr. and Cornell Boston.
