

Danny Christopher Stroud

February 9, 1990 - March 21, 2017

Danny Christopher Stroud (Lil Danny) of Millsboro, Delaware was born on February 9, 1990 in Dover, Delaware. He was the beloved son of Sabrina Stroud and Danny Burris.

Danny graduated from Cape Henlopen High School in 2007, a year earlier than his classmates. Lil Danny grew up in a small community in Rehoboth called Burton Village.

He was known for his great sense of humor and contagious laugh.

Danny had many great skills. He is most remembered for his barber skills at such an early age.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Robert C. Stroud, Sr., great-grandmother, Pearl Sudler and great-aunt, Danette Anderson.

Lil Danny is survived by his children, Danijah Stroud, Danny Stroud, Jr. and Ladora Stroud; parents, Sabrina Stroud and Danny Burris; siblings, Ashley Hood and brother-in-law David Hood, Deontae White, Malik Stroud, Nekai Stroud, Aisha Stroud, and Tanyla, Araina and Ja'carri Burris; aunts, Shiniqua Crowner, Monica Crowner, Ruthella Rolleand and Bessie Crain; uncles, Wallace Bush, Tyrone Massado and one of his most influential uncles was Uncle Robert C. Stroud, Jr; his grandmothers, Alva Crowner and Lola Mae

Williams; his niece and nephews along with a host of cousins, and friends; his loving fiancé, Rajien Harmon. To his brothers Christopher Spencer, Travoris Brittingham, Derrick Sewell, Shane Draper and Steffon Mills - you may not be blood brothers - but the bond you shared with Danny allows the family to appreciate and love you as one of our own. We thank you all for loving him for who he was.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. During difficult times like this it is so important to comfort and support one another as family and friends (Proverbs 17:17). Life, especially at times like this, cannot help but make us think of the preciousness and fragility of life (James 4:14). God's Word, the Bible can not only comfort us, but also assure us of the marvelous hope ahead (Jeremiah 29:11). Jesus words are written in the Bible where he promises that one day soon he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29). It means life to us that we have firm faith in this promise (John 11:25). There is no question that death is an "enemy" not only to humans, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is why He promises that He is going to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that have plagued mankind for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8; Psalm 37:10,11,29). It is with these things gone forever that those who are raised from the dead will enjoy never experiencing ever again on a beautiful paradise earth (Psalm 145:16, 17)! To be a part of such a grand future Almighty God simply wants us to do His Will and be blessed forever (1 John 2:17). In order to know God's Will, He has provided us with His Word, the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). We are encouraged, therefore, to read and meditate on it regularly as we apply its teachings and principles in our daily lives (John 17:3; James 2:26). Please read all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted by what lies ahead. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ My sincerest condolences to the family of Danny Stroud during this most difficult time of coping with the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy that robs us of time with those we love. That is why our Heavenly Father has made this promise, "And the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing "(1 Corinthians 15:26) Until then, may you continue to draw comfort and strength from family and friends and our wonderful Creator. Once again, I am sorry for your loss.
