

DaShaun "Big Baby" Lamar Hughes

June 18, 1993 - July 4, 2021

Dashaun Lamar Hughes, also known as "Big Baby" to many family and friends, was born June 18, 1993, in Dover, Delaware. He died unexpectedly and returned to the Lord on July 4, 2021, at the age of 28 years young.

Dashaun attended Dover High School. In his adult life, he worked diligently as a material handler at Reeb Millwork, located in Barclay, Maryland. During his time there, he was awarded RKG Packaging Champ and gained the love and respect of many of his co-workers.

Dashaun was a loving husband, a caring son, an understanding brother and a kind nephew. He loved being around those he cared about. He enjoyed music, singing and laughing. His smile lit up everyone's day.

On July 11, 2020, DaShaun and the love of his life, Angela, married and devoted their lives to each other, vowing to love one another through good and bad days.

Dashaun was preceded in death by his grandfather, William A. Wilson, Jr. and his sister, Dawya Camile.

Dashaun leaves to cherish his memories, grandparents, Virginia I. Wilson and Ira Scott; parents, Doris Wilson and Marlon Hughes (Rochelle Ruffin); wife,

“ Doris & Marlon....You have my deepest sympathy in the loss of your son. He was a great young man always preserving and working for higher goals. May God comfort and wrap you in his loving arms in this time of sorrow and may you find comfort in knowing to be absent form the body is to present with the Lord
