“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ To my co-worker at DSU for many years. May you rest peacefully until the Lord comes. We shared many good times while working in Memorial Hall.

To the family may you always cherish your fond memories of her. Be comforted in knowing that others share in your sorrow. God Bless each and everyone of you.

“ I am sorry to read about your loss. May God's words in the Bible at Ps 34:18 provide you comfort. The scriptures tells us "HE" is near to those broken at heart, and those crushed in spirit HE saves.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences. Sometimes just knowing others truly care can be uplifting. Almighty God "is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit." (Psalms 34:18) Almighty God also promises, "many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." (Daniel 12:2) May meditating on this wonderful future blessing and what it will mean for the unification of your family bring you comfort.
