David Lee Deshields, Sr. “Duck or Duck Oyster” as he was affectionately called by family and friends, was born on February 26, 1961 to the late George Edward Johnson, Jr. and the late Ella Mae Deshields in Salisbury, Maryland. David departed this life for his heavenly home on Wednesday, August 31, 2016. The good news is that David had accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior prior to being called home.

David was reared by his grand parents, the late Willie & George Johnson, Sr. He received his formal education in the public schools of Worcester County, Maryland. Prior to his illness. David was employed with Paul M. Jones Lumber Company in Snow Hill, Maryland for over 25 years.
