

David Glover

January 29, 1945 - October 8, 2020

David Richard Glover, was born on January 29, 1945, in the Bronx, New York, to the late Elizabeth Carney Glover and Thomas Glover. David departed this life on October 8, 2020, at Temple University Hospital, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

David attended Clinton High School in the Bronx. After graduating, he served in the United States Army. A man of many talents, after his discharge, his occupation was an optometrist. Later in the years, he became self employed as a contractor. If you knew David, then you knew he would pop up out of nowhere and pay you a visit.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Marie Tappen-Glover; sons, Donnell Hill and Frederick (Shareef) Glover; parents, Elizabeth Carney Glover and Thomas Glover; maternal and paternal grandparents, Thomas and Gerturde Carney and Sam Glover and Hattie Millhouse; brothers, Thomas Bratton, Noble Bratton, John Bratton, Herbert Bratton; sister, Roslyn Bratton-White; grandchildren, Shiheem and Jayden; and great-grandson, Christopher.

David leaves to celebrate his life, his children, David R. Glover Jr. (Jamal Salaam), Devin Glover, Robert Ingram (Sade), Erica Bryan (Michael) and Natashia Jeter; grandchildren, Dajuan, De'Andre, Naquaan, Shayla, Nia, Eric, Iya, Sabria, Xakira, Xaniyah, Xaidyn, Xander, Xi'Lyaa , Urijah, Khalil, Qasiym, Imaani, Makai, Charles, Jasir, Malachi, Radiem, Laila, Ambition, Davonte, Dayonna, Zion , Zhi'yonah, J'avon and Omega; seven great-grandchildren; brothers, Clarence Glover and Mario Glover; special daughter, Talissa Ingram; significant other, Vickie Jordan; special friends, Vickie Jeter and Lena Ingram; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.