“ Pat, David & Vivian, Paul & Lois, Linda & family, & Craig & Sandy & family,

David was always one of those special persons in our family that we always enjoyed when we visited with wonderful memories, shared music, and hopes for tomorrow.

David was the first within our family circle in many situations; the first child of Libby & Paul, which made him the first grandchild, the first nephew, the first to become a grandfather, and maybe great-grandfather of all the cousins. He worked many jobs, had his own band, was good at construction to include restoration of his & Pat's home despite severe injury to his right hand while a youth. He traveled his road, he fought off his dragons, did some stand-up comedy en route, and wrote and played some beautiful music. If I could choose two songs to say good-by they would be "Broke Down Palace" by Grateful Dead and "Go Rest High On The Mountain" by Vince Gill.

You all are a part of our daily prayers and will continue to be. We are sending Pat some funding for the memorial garden she is planning. God be with you all. We feel David is with Him.

“ I'll always remember the days spent teaching him how to use his left hand. I was the only leftie the same and David really needed the help. I loved him and all his quirky ways.
