“ I’ll always remember David as a very sweet guy with a sweet voice. We were on the Dover HS wrestling team together for four years and on the bus trip home on those clear cold winter nights, after the bus settled down and we started to get lost in our own thoughts, replaying the evening’s success or failure in our minds, David would often serenade us. “Always and Forever” by Heatwave was a favorite.

Even today, as life deals out wins and losses, triumphs and tragedies, David’s voice comes back to me. It reminds me that the pain of the loss will fade. That the thrill of winning is fleeting. But the warmth of the bus ride with people that you love and respect goes on and on.

“ Peace and love to my cousin, "Big Dave", the big brother I never had. Rest in love because we know you lived in peace. Family: stay strong--together.
