

DeAngelo Booker

January 14, 1963 - December 29, 2018

DeAngelo Booker, 55, passed away in his sleep on December 29, 2018, in Dover, Delaware. He was born in Portsmouth, Virginia, on January 14, 1963, to Harold and Minnie Booker.

After graduating from high school, he made the decision of joining the military. He enlisted in the United States Air Force, which showed his loyalty and dedication to his nation. While serving, he met his beautiful wife, Maria Rojas. Over an adventurous 32 years of love, they had their beloved daughters, Alyssa & Adriana Booker-Rojas. This everyday warrior filled their lives with love, laughter and protection.

DeAngelo enjoyed fishing, spoiling his pets, fixing/repairing just about anything and playing the Lotto. He dedicated over 20 years of work in the maintenance department to Kraft Foods, DGR, Whispering Meadows and lastly to Morgan Communities. DeAngelo was often referred as admirable and loyal by friends, co-workers and family. His favorite quote was "I can fix just about anything, but I can't fix stupid."

DeAngelo is survived by his wife, Maria Rojas; daughters Alyssa & Adriana Booker-Rojas; mother, Minnie Booker; four brothers, Antonio, Joseph, Cory and Harold Booker; and two sisters, Maxine Vincent and Emma Jean Booker. He also leaves behind several aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews and a host of friends, and colleagues, who played very important roles in his life.

“ A better man, I've never known. I served with him in Japan while with the 475th security police squadron. He lived across the hall and was always there to give me big brother advice or just a simple bit of friendship. I searched for him over the years and never made contact with him after I left Japan and today, I found out he passed away. I'm sad to hear of him passing and pray he is at peace. Much love and respect from me to you.

“ I was stationed with Deangelo in Japan and deployed for Jungle Air Base Ground Defense Training with him in the Philippines. I shared a foxhole with this man and his sense of humor kept my sanity for many of those days of living in the mud and muck. I am sorry for your loss. Book will always be a bright spot in my life and treasure that. TSgt Michael PackUSAF (Ret.)

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ To the family, I am sorry for your loss. I have had many interactions with Mr. Booker as a resident of Eagle Meadows and every time was a pleasant time. Most recently we talked after Christmas about the Eagles winning and if they had a chance to repeat. I hadn't seen someone so excited about the Eagles than myself at that time. I can say not only will Mr. Booker be missed by family and his co-workers but he will also be missed by the residents of Eagle Meadows. None of his hard work and kindness went unnoticed. I want to leave with the family a scripture to help with the process of healing. Romans 8:28 says, And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.

“Booker my Booker. As I sit and think of all the times that we talked about someone passing and how we'd miss them. I never thought that this day would come so soon about you. My very first day at Eagle Meadows your first words were: "Hey girl, where you from?" After 10 minutes of a conversation you then said: You know what, me and you are gonna be alright! That day 13 years ago Feb. 14 was the day we became family. And I loved you ever since. You were more than just a Colleague to me. You were a father figure, a role model for my kids and not just to my kids, but to all the kids of Eagle Meadows and Eagle Heights. As the years went by you always told me how proud you were of me. SO many times we'd laugh at you saying: You were just a balloon girl, now look at you. When I got married you told me if he ever..... I'll make a few calls and we laughed but I knew you were serious. When I moved you were the first one at my house making sure everything was in perfect condition and what wasn't you fixed it. Your smile would light up a dim room and make a bright one brighter. We were just together the night before your passing, cutting up as usual. What I'd give just for one more: YOU OUUTA GAS AGAIN!!!!, or Hey girl where you at? you good? Or a thanks Melissa for letting me vent girl. You were always welcome to have a seat at my table, but now you have the best seat ever in your own mansion. They say when one passes they come to visit you. Well Saniyah gave me your message. We are going to miss you too. From my lips to heavens ears I love you. Until we meet again.

“ My deepest condolences to his family and friends. Eagle meadows will not be the same without his presence. He did a lot to help my son. He watched him grow up and offered words of encouragement to him as he tried to figure out where to go in his career. He had a smile that would light up the room. Always ready to help someone in need. Rest easy Booker. You will be missed!!!

“ Booker my brother, I am at a lost for words after I heard the news. Christmas Eve we joked and laughed, as we always do, when you came by the apartment. You spoke of your daughter and how well she was doing in school, and of course, we discussed all the sporting teams while checking the time for you to get to your next job. You were more than a person who fixed things for Eagle Meadows, you were a person who's warm smile and kind heart, shined through in all you do. It's going to take me a minute to get used to not seeing you ride by in the cart and talking trash about football. You've made my time at Eagle Meadow a pleasurable one. I am hurt you are no longer here for your family. I pray the Lord showers your daughter and your family with all the blessings He's blessed us by knowing you. Take Care and Rest Well My Friend. You will be missed. The Belvin Family

“ *To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing DeAngelo. Please find comfort in the words of Isaiah 65:17, 20: "For look! I am creating new heavens and a new earth;no more will there be an infant from that place who lives but a few days, nor an old man who fails to live out his days...." No more will people die prematurely. There will be no more sickness or death. DeAngelo will have the hope of a resurrection. (Acts 24:15) Paradise awaits him. “ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection (Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one. -Revelation 21:3,4; John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. May GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time. -Matthew 5:4.

“ To the Family, I'm so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Then he continued: He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living. I know that those words mean that those retained in God's memory will return in the resurrection. Ms Woodson
