DEBORAH'S JOURNEY...

Deborah Ann DeShields, a resident of Glen Burnie, Maryland, formerly of Dames Quarter, Maryland, departed this earthly life on January 5, 2022. Fondly known as Debbie to most, she was born on May 16th, 1959 to Ida White Thomas and the late Lewis White, Sr. She was one of four girls and two boys.

Debbie was a member of Macedonia United Methodist Church under the leadership of Reverend De'Angelo Johnson where she served on several committees. Her favorite song to sing was "Walk Around Heaven All Day."

Debbie received her early education in Somerset County school district and the University of Maryland Eastern Shore (UMES). She joined the Army National Guard in 1986 before enlisting full time in 1989. After serving several years in the military, she retired to start a career with the Division of Corrections (DOC). During her tenure with the DOC, she became one of the first black female drill instructors at the Herman L. Toulson Boot Camp. She held various positions and titles including the audit and tact team. She decided to retire after twenty-three (23) years as an Administrative Major. She took a two-year break before returning to the workforce as a security guard with Allied Services. She quickly climbed the ladder, becoming a Lieutenant.

Affectionately known as Ma, Mimi, the Warden and L.T., Debbie had a kind, genuine heart and would give anybody the shirt off her back. She was known all throughout the state of Maryland for her singing and skits.

Debbie and Hilton were united in holy matrimony in 2006. The couple enjoyed their life together.

Precious memories of Deborah's life and legacy will be cherished by: her husband, Hilton of Salisbury, MD; her daughter, Marita (Rahul) of Delaware; her son, Demetrius of Baltimore, MD; a stepson, Hilton DeShields, Jr. of Prince Georges County, MD; her parents, William and Ida Thomas of Princess Anne, MD; three sisters, Veronica (Howie) Moore of Jersey City, NJ, Jacqueline Townsend of Salisbury, MD and Angela (Franklin) Hitch of Philadelphia, PA; one brother, Curtis (Stacy) White of Salisbury, MD; four aunts, Shirley Finney of Salisbury, MD, Gilder (Thomas) Downing of Woodlawn, MD, Maizie Archer of Odenton, MD and Evonne Williams of Salisbury, MD; one uncle, Douglas White of Salisbury, MD; six grandchildren, Jacquia (Carl), Terrell, Sa'Von, Sr., Najae, Kobe and Nevaeh; nine great grandchildren, Zion, Bella, Cayden, Sa'Von, Jr., Kyrie, Kaylani, Nalani, Carter and Tu'Lee; a host of nieces, nephews, godchildren, cousins, other extended relatives and friends and several special friends, Sylvia Hancock, Elaine Cottman, Sheila Edwards and June McCleese, amongst a few.

Preceding her in death, in addition to her father, Lewis, Sr., were Lewis, Jr. (brother), Sylvania (daughter), De'Shaun (nephew), Hanson and Medoria Wigfall (grandparents) and several other family members.

“ Until our spirits meet again I will rejoice in knowing that my sister in Christ is finally free. Free to walk those streets of gold. Free to worship The King of Kings, free to glorify The Lord of Lords. And free to reside with Emanuel. You were not only a friend, nor were you only a coworker, but you were a kinder spirit one that I will truly miss. For ever your sister in Christ. Tamela Mitz

“ Debbie Sis wow so many memories I can't believe you are not physically here but spiritually you will always be with us. I met you when I was 18 years old you were my big sis and always will be.
The times we had hanging out at Henry's Beach the north Carolina trip and Florida. We had a ball. Me choosing you to be Tee's Godmom the best Godmom ever. Singing at Mommy's funeral "Walk around Heaven now you are doing just that. I will miss you and I love you through eternity. Thank you for teaching and loving me. Kiss Mommy for me. Lovingly submitted your lil Sister Peaches

“ Deb Deb
I can't believe you are gone. The last time I saw you was when you visited mother at the nursing home in Silver Spring. You made mother so happy and I was overjoyed to see you. Sleep on Deb.
Give mother and Pumpkin a kiss and hug for me. Until we see each other again....
Love forever...
