“ Constantly thinking,
never to be the same,
the tears fall quickly
just hearing your name.

Silence is golden yet not anymore
silence brings thoughts
I just can't ignore.

The nights are sleepless,
dreams out of reach.
Crying in my pillow

My heart is so empty,

I wish I could hug you
and just see your face.
But now I have memories to stand in your place.

Gone but not forgotten,
I LOVE AND MISS YOU MY SISTER!

“ 1 Thessalonians 4:13-14-
But we do not want you to be uninformed, brethren, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve, as do the rest who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus.

“ I am sorry for your loss; please accept my sincere sympathy. We all look forward to the fulfillment of Jehovah's promise, when HE will put an end to death forever(Isaiah 25:8) when no family will never have to bury a love one again. And when HE will grant His Son, Jesus Christ, the power of the holy spirit, to raise those in graves back to life, with the prospect of eternal life on the renewed paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until you are reunited with your love one; may God continue to comfort and bless the Gibbs Family.- Matthew 5:4.

“ Words just cannot express how much I love my sister and the loss I feel. Out of my 46 years here on earth I can clearly remember 40 of them and Deborah is one of my first and fondest memory. She was first my big sister, second my 2nd mother figure, third my protector (she would beat up anyone I asked her to lol). Though I'm saddened I know she has no more sorrow, pains, cares and she is eternally resting in peace.
