

Deborah Marie Piarulli

March 27, 1955 - January 30, 2024

Deborah Marie Piarulli, 68, ran into the arms of Jesus on Jan. 30, 2024 after her long battle with Parkinsons. Debbie, who was born on March 27, 1955, was daughter of late Delores “Dolly” Wiedenhofer. Raised by deceased grandmother Henrietta Schoenfeld. Debbie graduated from Saint Benedict Catholic School. She was known for her laugh, smile and love for people. She was loved by many, but cherished by her family and church friends.

Debbie was survived by her loving husband of 21 years Don Piarulli, her beloved children Brian and Kristin Piarulli of Hershey PA, Kelly and Michael Stitzel of Coatesville PA, Mark Piarulli of Berlin MD, and Beth Patton of Pittsburgh PA. Her 17 grandchildren, Katelyn and Grayson Piarulli; Shyla, Austin, Abigayle, Gabriel, Jayden, Selena, Solomon, and Samara Stitzel; TaraLynn, Dominic, and Ricky Piarulli; and Aria Patton, Rayna and Kane Bowker. Her brother Greg Wiedenhofer of Pittsburgh PA, and Aunt Sandy Chase of Carnegie PA.

In keeping with Debbie’s wishes there will be a celebration of life on February 10, 2024 at Berlin First Baptist Church 613 William St., Berlin MD 21811 at 11 AM. Debbie’s last wishes were to have all her family and friends together celebrating her life. In Lieu of flowers Debbie has asked that donations would be made to Berlin First Baptist Church

“ We are so sad to not have her in our lives. We had such a great time with Debbie and Don when we went out to dinner. How she loved French onions soup, roast beef sandwich and prime rib! Now she is with our Savior in a perfect body! We miss you Lady!
With love
