

Delores Mae Hill

November 28, 1930 - January 28, 2018

Delores Mae (Vick) Hill (aka - Mama), 87, of Federalsburg, Maryland, passed away at Christiana Hospital on Sunday, January 28, 2018, surrounded by family, friends, and loved ones.

Delores was born in Norfolk, Virginia, on November 28, 1930, to the late Silas Vick and Lottie Hawk. She was one out of four children. Delores relocated from Virginia to the Eastern Shore, Maryland in 1938. She attended Lockerman High School and retired as a production line worker and domestic worker.

Delores was married to Janill Hill, Sr. on January 26, 1952, and they recently celebrated 66 years of marriage.

Delores enjoyed singing to any and everyone who would listen. She ministered by singing at numerous churches, various events, nursing homes, and her home church. There's no question how or why she earned the title, "Missionary Hill". Although, she did not drive, somehow she found a way for her spiritual, sweet melodies to reach people from not only many miles away but also from state to state; especially Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware. She often traveled to different churches with her daughters; Paris and Patricia, her son; Melvin, and her grandson; Dont'e. She most definitely always had on her "traveling shoes". Her favorite songs were "Precious Lord, Take My Hand", “Trouble In My Way”, “May The Work I’ve Done Speak for Me”, and “Jesus, How I Love Calling Your Name”. She also loved to pray for and with people. One of her favorite sayings was “Baby! Just pray about it”. Delores enjoyed talking on the phone with her good friends and family, and absolutely loved spending time with her grandchildren. In 1950, she joined the Church of God of Prophecy, under the leadership of the late Bishop I. J. James. In 1969, she joined the Eldorado Church of God of Prophecy, where the late Elder Thomas Murray presided. She was also a member of the Faith Deliverance House of Prayer under the leadership of Rev. Alvin Peterson and later transitioned to the Clarence Street Church of God under the leadership of Bishop Dr. Carlton Cannon, Jr. (Pastor) where she was a faithful, committed parishioner.

Delores is preceded in death by her father, Silas Vick; mother, Lottie Hawk; and two brothers, Robert Lester Lee Harris Mitchell (Bob) and Silas Vick, Jr. (Junie).

Delores is survived by her husband, Janill Hill, Sr. of Federalsburg, MD; one sister, Joyce Rose of Hurlock, MD; and one sister-in-law, Essie Sherrin of Carrsville, VA. She was blessed with 7 children, daughter and son-in-law, Betty and Larry Friend, Sr. of Dover, DE, son and daughter-in-law, Melvin and Quintina Robinson of Seaford, DE, daughter, Patricia Collier of Federalsburg, MD, son and daughter-in-law, James (Archie) and Regina Hill of Cambridge, MD, son, Janill Hill, Jr. (Junior) of Federalsburg, MD, daughter, Paris Twyman of Federalsburg, MD, and daughter, Patricia Bolden (Patsy) of Seaford, DE. “My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but we encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Dear Family,
Grief can be so hard at times, but our cherished memories help to cope. Hold tight to those memories. Lean on each other for support. And may you find comfort in God’s promise at (John 5: 28, 29).

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”?—Rom. 12:15.
