

Deloris L. Wyatt

July 21, 1933 - September 9, 2017

Deloris Ayers Wyatt was born in Bell Haven, Virginia to the late Isaac and Rachel Ayers, on Friday, July 21, 1933. She departed this life on Saturday, September 9, 2017 at her daughter's home. Deloris graduated from the Accomack County Public School System in Virginia. Deloris met and married David Wyatt and out of that union, four children were born.

Deloris was a homemaker and also worked in the poultry industry for many years. Later she worked at The Lewes Convalescent Center in Lewes, Delaware, for 20 years, where she was a Certified Nursing Assistant. She also worked private duty for several families.

Deloris was affectionally called "GRANNY" by her grandchildren, and they were heart's delight. Deloris enjoyed cooking for her family and friends. You had not eaten a good breakfast until you had her famous "Homemade Sausage."

Deloris was preceded in death by one son, James Ayers; five sisters, Lillie Beckett, Elizabeth Blunt, Hattie Kellam, Jeanette Waters, Magdalene Brisco; and one brother Joseph Ayers

Deloris leaves to cherish her memories, one daughter Angela (William) Wildy of Milton, Delaware; three sons, David (Willie Mae) Ayers of Milton, Delaware,

Wayne (Debbie) Wyatt of Millsboro, Delaware, and Calvin Wyatt of Milton, Delaware; one brother, Milton Ayers of Millsboro, Delaware, 12 grandchildren, 30 great grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren, two sisters-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”—Rom. 12:15.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41:10; Revelation 21:3,4) I hope these thoughts will comfort you also.
